

DAS GHANAIA LANGUAGE & CULTURE - SECOND SEMESTER - JHS ONE

Week	ORAL SKILLS	GRAMMAR	READING & LITERATURE	WRITING & COMPOSITION
1	SECTION 1 – ORAL SKILLS UNIT 1 : Culture Elements of culture	Unit 1: Speech Sounds Identify vowels in the various languages. Identify vowels with more than one sound.	UNIT 1 : Reading Aloud Reading aloud fluent with correct pronunciation and voice modulation	UNIT 1 : Word Classes Word classes – meaning and examples
2	Cultural practices of the locality	Identify consonant sounds and pronounce them correctly. Write words which are made up of diagraphs.	Reading aloud fluent with correct pronunciation and voice modulation	Word classes – meaning and examples
3	UNIT 2 : Greetings And Responses Greetings for specific seasons and occasions	Unit 2: Word Classes Unit Identify abstract nouns in the language. Use concrete nouns in sentences	UNIT 2 : Silent Reading And Comprehension Reading silently and carefully through passage to get the main ideas	Word classes – meaning and examples Positions that word classes occupies in the sentence
4	Greetings for specific seasons and occasions	Identify and use collective nouns in sentences.	Reading silently and carefully through passage to get the main ideas	Positions that word classes occupies in the sentence
5	Appropriate expressions to greet in specific situations	Use common nouns in speech and in writing. Identify gender of nouns.	Reading silently and carefully through passage to get the main ideas	UNIT 2 : NOUNS AND PRONOUNS Nouns – meaning, types, singular and plural forms of nouns
6	UNIT 3 : Naming Systems Sources of names	Identify and use proper nouns in speech and in writing.	Read silently and answer comprehension questions on text or passage read.	Nouns – meaning, types, singular and plural forms of nouns
7	Sources of names Appellations for certain names	UNIT 3: Pronouns Identify and use singular and plural pronouns in sentences.	Read silently and answer comprehension questions on text or passage read.	Pronouns – meaning, types, use of pronouns in sentences, singular and plural pronouns.
8	UNIT 4 : Kinship Terms Various kinship relationship in the community Terms associated with the various kinship	Identify relative pronouns in passages and use them in sentences. Use possessive pronouns appropriately.	Identify the main ideas in the passages read.	Pronouns – meaning, types, use of pronouns in sentences, singular and plural pronouns.
9	Unit 3: Gratitude and Appreciation Expressing gratitude and appreciation. Use of right gestures to show appreciation.	Unit 1: Speech Sounds Vowels in the various languages. Vowels with more than one sound.	Unit 3: Comprehension And Summary Summary of passages	Unit 1: Guided/Controlled Composition Writing Simple story writing: Sentences about given topics Writing simple sentences on a given topic.
10	Reasons why we should show appreciation and gratitude for what is done for us.	Consonant sounds and pronounce them correctly. Words which are made up of diagraphs.	Short summary of one paragraph of a short passage.	Writing short sentences on a given topic.
11	UNIT 4 : Kinship Terms Various kinship relationship in the community	Unit 4: TRANSITIVE VERBS Transitive verbs Transitive verbs in sentences and use them correctly.	Unit 4-Introduction To Literature Explain the term literature”.	Unit 2: Paragraph Writing Identifying main ideas into paragraphs

13	Various kinship relationship in the community	Intransitive verbs Intransitive verbs and use them correctly in sentences.	Types of Literature and their differences.	Identifying main ideas into paragraphs
14	Terms associated with the various kinship	UNIT 5 NEGATION Identify verbs in sentences and negate them. Change verbs into negative and use them in sentences.	Characteristics of oral and written literature.	Developing an idea into a paragraph
15	Unit 5: The Clan System Explain what the clan is and mention the names of some clans in the locality.	UNIT 6: ADJECTIVES Adjectives in sentences Attributive adjectives in sentences. Predicative adjectives in	Unit 5: Literature Literary appreciation	UNIT 3: NARRATIVE WRITING Narrating events of everyday occurrences in speech and in writing
16	Basic features that identify a clan. Importance of the clan system. Factors that have reduced the importance of the clan system.	sentences correctly. Attributive & Predicative adjectives in sentences correctly.	Write a simple poem on a contemporary issue.	Narrating events of everyday occurrences in school or home
17	Unit 6: Annual Festivals Identify names and types of festivals of his/her locality. Explain the importance of festivals. Identify problems associated with festivals.	Unit 7: Conjunctions Identify and use conjunctions correctly in speech and in writing.	Unit 6: Oral Literature Identify types of oral Literature.	Unit 4: Descriptive writing Write a short imaginative story.
18	Unit 7: non-verbal communication (body language) Identify some non-verbal forms of communication.	Unit 8: Post Positions Identify and use postpositions appropriately in sentences.	Distinguish between types and features of oral narratives.	Write a short imaginative story
19	Explain the value and importance of non-verbal communication as a form of socialization. Identify some disadvantages of non-verbal communication.	Identify and use postpositions appropriately in sentences.	State the types of oral poetry. Identify some proverbs; idioms, riddles, puzzles.	Unit 5: Writing Simple Argumentative Essay Select a side of a proposition. Advance reasons for and against a topic or issue.
20	Unit 8: Telling the Time/Months Tell the time of day accurately. Mention days of the week in their language.	Unit 9: Emphatic Particles Explain the meaning of an emphatic particle and its importance in sentences.	Unit 7: Written Literature Discuss the types of written literature.	Unit 6: Letter Writing (Informal) Write a letter to a friend.
21	State the months of the year in their various languages.	Explain the meaning of an emphatic particle and its importance in sentences.	Distinguish the features of the various types of written literature. Identify the elements of a novel.	Write a letter to a friend